Youth 8-13 years old, LET'S GO CAMPING!

Our office sponsors Junior summer camp at Betsy Jeff Penn 4-H Camping Center from June 12-17. The cost of camp is $280, which includes all meals and a $20 store card. We have six boy spots left but we may still be able to find some spots for girls. Call the 4-H Office today!

Camp Scholarships Available!

Thanks to the Cabarrus 4-H Budget, there still are three partial camp scholarships of $100 available to junior 4-H campers based on need and 4-H accomplishments.

Adult Volunteers, YOUR Help is Needed!

Cabarrus County is proudly hosting this year's District Activity Day on Thursday, June 23 at Jay M. Robinson High School, 300 Pitts School Road, Concord. We will need plenty of help to make the day a success. Please call the office to sign up for the following

Southwest
District

activities:

- Room
- Host/Hostess
- Greeters
- Lunch help
- Information Desk
- Set Up on June 22

Please help us make this event a success!

Teens Save These Dates

The annual NC 4-H Club Congress will be held at NC State University in Raleigh July 18-22. This exciting week will be filled with state presentation finals, talent and fashion shows, workshops, dances and much more! More details will follow but save these dates! The Congress fee will be $220. Sign up and fees are due no later than June 30 at the 4-H Office. We hope you will plan to attend this really great week of 4-H fun!

BON VOYAGE, 4-H Exchange Group!

In just two weeks, the Cabarrus 4-H Exchange Group will be flying the high skies to Saginaw County, Michigan! The group will leave June 13 and return June 20. Participants this year include: Greylan Counts, Tommy Clark, Adele Harper, Charity Hill, Nikki Hill, Kayla Mason, Kristen Mason, Madison McGlamery, Daniel Outen, and chaperones Aubrey and Carol Haigler, David and Wanda Hill, and Tommy and Jo Ann Lowder. We hope you have a fun trip!

Welcome New Staff!

Everyone stop by to welcome Carrie Haigler and Charity Hill. Carrie and Charity are here to answer your Summer Fling questions and keep things running smoothly.

We also have a new face up front- Cynthia Brown will be joining our staff as the new secretary for FCS, Hort. and Adult EFNEP. We're glad they're here!

Summer ADVENTURES for Rising 6th, 7th, & 8th Graders

4-H P.A.C.K. (Positive Activities for Cool Kids) announces exciting day time camp opportunities for middle school youth. Youth attending "CONNECTION DETECTION", June 13-17 are guaranteed fun with wacky self esteem and team building games, learning how to say "No" and still keep friendships, eat hotdogs, watch a Kannapolis Intimidators' baseball team and gain insight into the power of nonverbal communication. The youth attending "WATER WIZARDS", held June 20-24, should be prepared to get wet and have lots of fun with water balloons, seining a stream, identifying aquatic life, paddle boating, searching for gems and learning water safety techniques. Youth attending June 27-July 1, will "REACH NEW HEIGHTS" while having fun with in paper airplane competition, flying kites, joining in an aerospace skill-a-thon, make rockets, preparing space snacks, visiting Horizons Unlimited Planetarium, testing physical skills with new games and find ways to move toward success in their goals. Campers on July 5-8, will discover foods of the future from "APPLESAUCE TO WAFFLES" and view the careers of an agronomist, dietitian, biotechnologist, and chef, visit local food industries, learn how to eat the way to good health, and enjoy delicious food science experiments. "WE'RE ROCKING" campers, July 11-15 will blast away to a visit to Vulcan Rock Quarry, learn rock identification and hike on a rock quarry trail at Morrow Mountain, cool it with a swim, design a pet rock and make a stepping

Come to the June County Council Meeting

Community Service is the goal of this meeting! Please bring your friends to the County Council meeting on Tuesday, June 21, 6:30-8:00 p.m. We will have a great time and will be helping with others! Adults, we will to finish up some last minute details on District Activity Day, and then join the youth with the community service projects. See you there!

Photography Contest

The state photography contest has new categories this year! They are "4-H in Action," "Nature's Beauty," and "Changing Faces of Agriculture." Age categories are 9-12 and 13-19 years old. All photos must be taken by the 4-H'er and be accompanied by the original media (negative, print, slide, APS Film, disk, or CD). Entries are due Monday, June 6. For rules, judging criteria and entry forms, contact Sara West.

Clover Camp Junior Leaders Needed!

Calling all teens! Would you like to help the Cloverbuds enjoy a great week of music, movement, crafts and snacks during Clover Camp? We need you to apply for one of the Clover Camp Teen Leader positions. You will be asked to be at the 4-H Office from 8:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. the week of July 11-15. Call Sara West today!

53rd Annual Cabarrus County Fair September 10-17th

If your club is interested in telling the world about something that means a great deal to you, and earning money at the same time, then you need to register for one of the ten 4-H educational fair booth spaces by calling the 4-H Office today (booth size will be 8X10). This is a wonderful opportunity to share with others the good news about all the learning that is taking place in the Cabarrus County 4-H Program! Remember, there are only 10 spots available and they will go quickly. We hope you are busy planning a head to things that you can enter in the Youth Department because September will be here quickly! Crafts, baked goods, photography, Summer Fling projects, horticulture, sewing and many more fun categories await you at the 2005 Cabarrus County Fair!

stone. "ECO-ADVENTURE" campers, July 18-22, will explore the environment using a line transect, construct and eco system, spin a food web, practice the 3R's of reduce, recycle, and reuse, travel to Dan Nicholas Park for a nature study with raptors and feeding snakes as well as how to build a birdhouse to take home. Camp held June 13- July 1 will be at J.N. Fries; and July 5-22 at Concord Middle School from 6:45 a.m. (no later than 9 a.m.) -6:00 p.m. These fun, exciting theme week activities are planned at one of the supervised settings at the low cost of $125 per week. 	Meeting Date: 4/30/05 The business was discussed about the upcoming show. The program consisted of " How to correctly wash hands", and Mrs. Green presented Mission...Nutrition. We also had a mentoring class for beginner riders and practiced for the Bridles and Bits Horse Show. While some of our members participated in the 4-H District Horse Show, others participated in the Bridles and Bits Show at Wings and Eagles Ranch. Funds from this show went to support of our club and to Wings of Eagles Therapeutic Riding Center. We participated in the District Horse Show (see page 3 for results). It was fun, but it was hard work. Next meeting: Saturday, June 18 at Wings of Eagles Ranch. We will be working on our project books as our parents ride horses.	Meeting Date: 5/10/05 Meeting Location: Stephanie Steele's House The meeting was called to order. Elizabeth Habina took roll call. Then we discussed what we all would like to do for more community service projects and upcoming 4-H events. Afterwards we all enjoyed refreshments. Then everyone divided into groups and one group to worked on the charity garden and the other group planted okra, tomatoes, and onion seeds. Next Meeting: July 12, 2005 at 2:00 p.m. at Stephanie Steele's house. Note: WE WILL NOT BE HAVING A JUNE MEETING Submitted by: Eden Lipe	The Rimer Cloverbud club met on May 17, 2005 at Cross of Christ Parish Hall for our bike-a-thon, which raised money for cystic fibrosis. We had a great turnout, with a total of fifty people. We also were glad to have our friends, family, and pastor join us or this special event. We also held a cookout. We had a total of 13 participants riding bikes. We raised $760. Submitted by: Bailey Cruse

	The Hoofprints had their monthly meeting for May at the SW District Horse show on Sunday, May 8. Congratulations to four of the five members qualified for the upcoming State Horse show. Pictures were taken for articles to submit to the Appaloosa Horse club and local newspaper. We discussed Mission...Nutrition at the horse show. Next month we will finalize plans for the State Horse show in July. Submitted by: Stephanie Kenney 	The Odell 4-H club met on May 9 th . Beth Tevepaugh called the meeting to order and Courtney Frantz led the pledges. For old business we discussed the fashion review. In new business we talked about going to see a Kannapolis Intimidators game at our June meeting. Arielle Olson led a great program on Origami. We learned how to make roses and envelopes. The meeting was adjourned and we enjoyed a snack.
